

GENERAL RULES AND REGULATIONS

1. All exhibits MUST BE PREREGISTERED.
 2. There will be entry fees on JUNIOR RODEO. Entry fees must accompany entry blanks to be accepted.
 3. No article exhibited at a previous Uinta County Fair & winning a prize will be eligible for exhibit. Articles must have been made within the past three (3) years.
 4. To participate in the Jr. Show exhibitors must be 4-H or FFA members in good standing, of Uinta County & exhibit must be made & owned by exhibitor or family member.
 5. Exhibits must be in place by the time designated for them or they cannot be entered. Exhibits, except horses, dogs, pocket pets, cats & breeding (sheep- beef- goats) must remain until 3:00 p.m., Aug 5. Exhibitors removing exhibits before release time will forfeit all premiums and/or be banned from participation at the Uinta County Fair.
 6. Exhibit Hall will be closed to the public for judging on Saturday Jul 29 and Monday, Jul 31.
 7. Exhibit building will be closed to public until ready, Tuesday Aug 1.
 8. Exhibits may only be entered in the Division & Class listed in the premium list. Livestock exhibitors may have two entries or individuals per class. Exhibits which do not fall into any division listed will not be judged.
 9. Any question, concern, or consideration concerning the exhibit hall or exhibit hall exhibits should be addressed to the Fair Board Member in charge of the exhibit hall.
 10. All animals and articles entered shall be classified under the appropriate division & shall be under the control of the superintendent of that division.
 11. Superintendents in each department are required to take charge of articles belonging to their department upon arrival & see that they are arranged in their proper place. Exhibitors are required to cooperate with them & place tagged articles as directed.
 12. The Fair Board will take precautions for the safekeeping of exhibits, but will not be responsible for any loss or damage. Exhibitors must give personal attention to the removal of their articles at the end of the fair. Those exhibits that are not picked up Saturday, August 5 will be kept at the Fair Office and after two weeks will be discarded.
 13. Any lost and found items not picked up within two weeks after the fair will be discarded or donated.
 14. The Fair Board reserves the right to prorate the available premium money if necessary. Premium money will be paid on purple, blue, red and white ribbons, in the 4-H & FFA; & blue, red and white ribbons in open class.
 15. Exhibits will be judged on the Danish System. Each exhibit will receive a blue, red or white ribbon. Grand and Reserve Champions will be awarded at the judge's discretion.
 16. No exhibit shall receive a premium unless deemed worthy by the judge, though it may be the only one of its kind entered. If unworthy of a first prize it may be awarded second or third on the decision of the judge.
 17. All premiums not picked up in person by Aug 5 will be mailed out in the form of a check. Premium checks not cashed within 90 days will be void and funds will be forfeited.
 18. A veterinarian will be available to the fair and his/her word will be final for the health of any animal. Any exhibitor requesting to remove any animal suspected of illness from the fairgrounds, prior to scheduled release time, will be required to obtain such authorization from a certified veterinarian at the owner's expense. Sick animals may be removed from the fairgrounds in the best interest of the animal and exhibitors.
 19. The Uinta County Fair Board reserves the right to interpret these rules and regulations and arbitrarily to settle and determine all matters and differences that arise.
 20. A project done in school should be eligible for display or show through one, but only one organization. The member should be enrolled in this project during the current year. The organization should be chosen by the youth member.
 21. In June, 1982, the 1940 agreement between the Wyoming State Depart. of Vocational Education and the Wyo. Cooperative Extension Service involving 4-H and FFA youth was reviewed & amended to read as follows: "If a boy or girl is enrolled in both 4-H and Vo Ag or Home Economics, work done must be different in each. For example: 4-H or FFA members may carry the same type of supervised occupational experience program in Vo Ag or as a 4-H project, but the exhibit must be different in each. The FFA exhibit must come from a supervised FFA program and the 4-H exhibit must come from a 4-H project.
 22. No cats or dogs allowed on the fairgrounds except for those entered in the dog or pet show. All show dogs must be on a leash.
 23. Random drug testing may occur with all market livestock. Any project members exhibiting animals that test positive to drugs will forfeit their premium and be banned from participation at the Uinta County Fair.
 24. Animals exhibited in a Jr. Division market class cannot exhibit in a breeding class.
- JUDGES
25. Every effort was expended to provide competent judges. No exhibitor or spectator will be allowed to interfere with a judge in the performance of their duties.
 26. Exhibitor must arrange for the prompt showing of all exhibits at the call of the judge. At the judge's discretion any exhibit not presented promptly when called may be disqualified.
 27. The decision of the judge shall be final and no appeal will be considered except in cases of formal protest. At the judge's discretion, they are not required to place any class not deemed worthy.
 28. Objection to any person serving as a judge must be submitted to Fair Management in writing prior to his making an award; giving good and sufficient reason therefore, and upon which the Management shall have the full power to act.
 29. WHEN ARTICLES OR ANIMALS ARE NOT DEEMED WORTHY BY THE JUDGE; A GRAND, RESERVE, BLUE, RED, OR WHITE RIBBON WILL NOT BE AWARDED WHETHER THERE IS COMPETITION OR NOT IN THE SAME CLASS.

PROTESTS

30. A committee consisting of Fair Board Members will hear protests and suggestions.
31. All formal protests must be submitted in writing, be signed, and be accompanied by $100 cash or certified check per protestor (refundable if protest is sustained). The protest must plainly state the cause of the complaint or appeal and must be delivered to the Fair Board President immediately after the occasion for the protest. A protest pertaining to eligibility is most suitable when submitted prior to judging.
32. Judging procedures will not be interrupted for protest investigation. Depending on the basis of the protest, interested parties may be notified and given the opportunity to submit evidence. A decision may be withheld until a complete investigation can be made. No complaint or appeal that a judge overlooked an entry will be considered.

CLERKS

33. Clerks will please report to the superintendent well in advance of the time set for the judging of the exhibits in order to get proper instruction.
34. Clerks will be responsible for checking in the entries and making sure that tags are filled out properly.

4-H CLUBS AND FFA CHAPTERS

LIVESTOCK INFORMATION, RULES AND REGULATIONS

1. All youth exhibitors (4-H/FFA) exhibiting in the Jr. Division of the Uinta County Fair, must be enrolled & carrying that particular project for the given year.
2. OWNERSHIP: Market Beef must be owned and tagged by February 20. Market Sheep, Market Goats, and Market Hogs must be owned and tagged by June 19.
3. Classes for 4-H and FFA only are so marked.
4. Official dress for the FFA Members will be FFA jacket, white shirt, tie (or scarf for girls), black dress pants, and black dress shoes or boots. 4-H members should dress in long sleeved shirts, dark pants, boots or dress shoes. Jackets and neckties are optional.
5. Junior Division (4-H and FFA) members must accompany and exhibit their own market livestock personally, but in case they need help they may have another Junior Division (4-H or FFA) member show their animals with prior approval from the superintendent of that livestock show. Any violation of this will be grounds for disqualification.
6. While in the show ring, the person showing the animal must do so without aid, excluding sheep and pens of three. All adults, except those qualified to be in the show ring, must remain outside the show ring while the show is underway.
7. LIVESTOCK FITTING RULE: Any immediate family member or volunteer leader may provide assistance to a 4-H /FFA member during animal fitting or care. The youth MUST be present during this assistance. Assistance is defined as a learning situation where a teacher (helper) is teaching the 4-H or FFA member a technique in fitting, showing, or care. The teacher/adult is allowed only to show the 4-H /FFA member the proper techniques or skills and the 4-H/FFA member is expected to perform the majority of each technique or skill required. It is important to keep in mind that common sense should be employed when working with youth and livestock. When a situation arises that may affect the safety of the 4-H/FFA member, an immediate family member may assist as much as necessary to avoid injury. Youth, parents, and leaders will be given a verbal warning the first time this rule is not followed; 2nd time youth will be asked to take their animals home and will not be allowed to continue at fair for that year.
8. Violations of this rule must be reported to the show committee before the animal enters the show ring. A decision by the show committee will be made before the animal is allowed in the ring. The show committee will be the committee for each livestock division, the livestock superintendent and the FFA and 4-H advisors.
9. Due to limited pen space, each exhibitor will be allowed one pen for each market animal species entered, for penning up to 2 animals. If there is less than 2 animals in any specie entered, that animal will be combined with other club or family member's exhibits of the same species.
10. All exhibitors are required to keep alleys and stalls clean at all times per ADA requirements.
11. Any animal inadvertently entered in the wrong class may be assigned to the correct class up to the day prior to judging.
12. Market Beef must be born after January 1, 2016. Market Lamb, Swine, and Goats must be born after January 1, 2017. Market Poultry must be born after March 1, 2017. Market Rabbits must be born after April 1, 2017.
